GRADUATE ASSISTANCE IN AREAS OF NATIONAL NEED (GAANN) FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

To apply for the GAANN Fellowship Program, please:

1. Complete and submit this form.
2. Send, by email, the following supporting documentation to Dr. Ali Hurson:
   a. A one-page summary of your most important qualifications for the GAANN Fellowship; including undergraduate and graduate (if applicable) GPA, relevant course work, GRE scores, and any related work experience.
   b. A one- to two-page statement of purpose that describes your short- and long-term professional goals and plans to meet those goals, and explains how the GAANN Fellowship program will facilitate reaching those goals. The statement should also describe your research interests, as related to information assurance; and your motivation for pursuing this research and a PhD.
   c. A one- to two-page resume.

Final selection as a GAANN fellow is contingent upon admission to the Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, or Computer Science PhD programs. See the Missouri S&T web site for application requirements, which include transcripts, GRE scores and personal data.

If you are selected for the program, you will be required to complete a FAFSA form* to determine financial need.
